

Data Science Remote Drop-In Advising – Fall 2020

Remote drop-in advising is available to current UW-Madison students. Remote drop-in advising is for major declaration and quick questions (i.e. course swap/change/enroll questions). Course planning, graduate school preparation, research/internship questions, and other questions that will last more than 15 minutes should be discussed during a scheduled advising appointment*.

Remote Drop-in Hours (starting September 3, 2020):

- Tuesdays 8-10 AM CST
- Thursdays 1-3 PM CST (No Drop-In Advising on November 26,2020 [Thanksgiving Day])

How to Access Remote Drop-In Advising:

To access remote drop-in advising, students will need WebEx and an internet connection. If you are currently outside the United States, please download and use the WiscVPN to access WebEx. If you need accommodations for remote drop-in advising, please email dsmajor@stat.wisc.edu.
